

Explain why you want to attend ICoMST (maximum 1 pg.) Please include how you expect the meeting would benefit your career objectives and the impact attending would have on your ability to effect change in the meat and livestock industry.

Have these results been presented at any other conferences or are there any publications resulting from the research?

Have all co-authors approved your research to be submitted to CMSA for consideration of this scholarship?

ICoMST Travel Scholarship for 2024 - Check List

1. Application Form
2. Summary of Research Project
3. Letter of Reference
 - a. A letter from your supervisor explaining the level of student of student involvement in development of your research project and the potential benefits of attending ICoMST
 - b. The letter must confirm that your supervisor has seen and approved your application for this scholarship and that all co-authors have approved the research.
 - c. The letter MUST be emailed to jennmitchell.tfio@bellnet.ca and needs to be sent directly from the supervisor's email address

Important Notes

1. Applications are to be submitted to Jennifer Mitchell at jennmitchell.tfio@bellnet.ca by ____ at 11:59 p.m. Late applications will not be accepted.
2. The scholarship covers one registration for ICoMST. The CMSA office will take care of registration for ICoMST and will provide details to the winners on how they will attend ICoMST. CMSA will not cover accommodations or flights to ICoMST.
3. The winner must provide a detailed summary on their experience at ICoMST and an abstract of their research to be provided in the CMSA Newsletter.